Czech Presidency in the Context of Cooperation of the French-Czech-Swedish Trio: Challenges and Opportunities

International Conference organised by the Association for the International Affairs with the support of the Office of the Government of the Czech Republic

Prague, 24 September, 2009

Venue: Liechtenstein Palace

The purpose of this one-day expert conference, organised by the Association of International Affairs (AMO) with the support of the Office of the Government of the Czech Republic, is to evaluate the performance of the Czech presidency of the Council of the European Union 2009 in the framework of the France - Czech Republic - Sweden presidential trio.

Its goal is to map practical development in particular areas of cooperation and identify topics, where effective approach was reached as well as those where cooperation was limited. The event presents a great opportunity for government officials, academia and professionals in the sphere of business and diplomacy as well as interested public from to meet and exchange their opinions.

The conference comprises four topical blocs concerned with the economy, energy, transatlantic relations and European neighbourhood policy.

An independent study covering the topic, as well as a series of papers prepared by the Research Centre of AMO providing assessment of the performance of the Czech Presidency 2009, will be presented.
